

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

-----X

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

ORDER

-against-

19-CV-5549 (GBD) (JW)

CAROLYN BUFF,

Defendant.

JENNIFER E. WILLIS, United States Magistrate Judge:

On September 27, 2022, a conference was held in this matter. The Court requested further submissions from the parties on two points: (1) whether Plaintiff can identify any French statute or case that finds tax matters to be administrative matters, thus outside the ambit of the Hague Convention; and (2) any response from Plaintiff regarding Defendant's motion to seal, Dkt. No. 111. The following schedule was set:

- Plaintiff's submissions on both points is due by October 7, 2022. Plaintiff is limited to three pages on the issue of French law, and ten pages on the privacy issue raised by Defendant.
- Defendant's responses, should she choose to submit one, are due by October 14, 2022. Defendant is limited to three pages to respond to Plaintiff's finding on the question of French law, and five pages for a reply brief on the privacy law issue.

A subsequent conference is scheduled for October 21, 2022 at 10 AM (ET). The Parties will be sent a Microsoft Teams link. The audio dial-in is (646) 453-4442, phone conference ID 601 659 756#. The discovery deadline is extended to October 21, 2022.

SO ORDERED.

DATED: New York, New York
